ENROLLMENT BY ETHNICITY (FALL 2023)

Campus Facilities

The Providence Campus is spread across more than 170 acres and 2,320,000 square feet of 47 buildings, including residence halls, classrooms, labs, dining halls, libraries, offices, open spaces, and internship, recreation and physical plant facilities.

Sustaining the Environment

JWU has revitalized close to 100 acres of waterfront alongside the Harborside Campus through significant brownfields remediation efforts. Improvements include shoreline reconstruction, an Urban Coastal Greenway, athletic fields, solar fields, wind turbines, and the donation of a six-acre waterfront parcel for an environmentally “smart design” educational and research center dedicated to the protection of Narragansett Bay and marine life.

The Cuisinart Center for Culinary Excellence, Grace Welcome Center, Center for Physician Assistant Studies and John J. Bowen Center for Science and Innovation have been awarded LEED® Gold certification by the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC) for energy and material use and for incorporating a variety of other sustainable strategies.

Financial Aid (2023–24)

JWU is committed to making a quality education as accessible and affordable as possible. The university has taken proactive steps to manage student debt by increasing institutional aid over the past several years. Approximately 98.5% of JWU Providence on-campus students receive institutional scholarships and/or grants from the university, often making an education at JWU more affordable than other universities.

Pell grants were awarded to 30.4% of the undergraduate students enrolled at the Providence Campus.

Strategic Plan

JWU’s 10-year master plan, known as the POWERED BY series, has three components spanning that time frame. The first of the series, POWERED BY PURPOSE 2024, builds upon past strategic plans and sets clear goals for the future to ensure that JWU attracts and retains well-regarded faculty and staff, recruits high-performing and ambitious students, and promotes a culture across the university that takes pride in fostering student success, scholarly excellence and institutional efficiency.
