B. Who Should Report and What to Report

Employees, students, and third parties (defined as including but not limited to contractors, customers, parents, vendors, volunteers, etc.) are encouraged to report all known or suspected Violations. Employees have a special duty to recognize and to report all known or suspected Violations without unreasonable delay. Doubts about whether to report should be resolved in favor of reporting. That said, this policy is not intended for reports that do not involve Violations (such as personal grievances or expressions of opinion on policies).

a itiona information. The uni ersit will in estigate a reports an will take appropriate correcti e action hen arrante b the resu ts of the in estigation.

E. Prohibition of Retaliation

JWU prohibits reta iation, inc u ing coercion, iscrimination, intimi ation, or threats against an in i i ua ho has ma e a goo faith report (i.e., a report the reporter reasonab be ie es is true or is ike to be etermine to be true upon further in estigation) or ho has in goo faith cooperate as a itness or